LEGAL WRITING

Tuesday & Thursday, 4:00–5:20, SJ2 2007

INSTRUCTOR INFORMATION

Instructor: Dr. Ryan Devitt

Office: Sweeney Hall 2113

Office Hours: Tuesday & Thursday, 2:30–3:30

Email: rtdevitt@uwaterloo.ca

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course will examine the nature of legal language and will provide tools to understand and interpret genres of legal writing and oratory, including statutes, pleadings, judicial opinions, facta, witness examinations, and opening and closing arguments. The course is divided into two parts: (1) General considerations of language, legal language, and language interpretation, and (2) Legal genres. Classes will consist of lectures and discussions, as well as in-class exercises and workshops.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course, students should be able to

- (1) reproduce the conventions of a range of legal genres,
- (2) apply basic rhetorical principles in evaluation of legal discourse,
- (3) apply argumentation theories in legal reasoning, and
- (4) appreciate the importance of language in making, interpreting, and applying law.

REQUIRED TEXTS

1. Peter M. Tiersma, Legal Language
2. Electronic Course Reserves (<https://www.reserves.uwaterloo.ca/ares/ares.dll>)
3. Course Material on Learn (analysis tools, legal documents, assignment guideline)

POLICY ON LATE WORK, MISSED ASSIGNMENTS, AND MAKE-UP TESTS

Assignments are due in class on the date specified. Late assignments will be penalized 5% per day, including weekends, unless you have made arrangements with your instructor before assignments are due. Attendance is mandatory on the statute peer-evaluation day (Tuesday, October 8). If you miss the statute peer-evaluation class, you must bring appropriate documentation to account for your absence.

Medical emergencies must be documented by a UW "Verification of Illness Form," available at Health Services or at <https://uwaterloo.ca/campus-wellness/health-services/student-medical-clinic>. Non-medical emergencies will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis and must be accompanied by appropriate documentation.

University Regulations governing all assignments, tests, and final exams can be found at <http://ugradcalendar.uwaterloo.ca/page/Acad-Regs-Assignments-Tests-and-Final-Exams>

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Although there is no participation grade for the course, regular attendance and involvement in class discussions are necessary to understand course material and to adequately prepare for assignments and exams. The quality of your in-class experience and the value of lectures will depend on your familiarity with the readings. Please read all assigned material before class and come prepared for discussion.

CORRESPONDENCE

Please send all correspondence to rtdevitt@uwaterloo.ca. Include your first & last name and the course code. I will endeavor to answer your question(s) within 24 hours, Mon–Fri.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Academic Integrity: To maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo and its Affiliated and Federated Institutions of Waterloo (AFIW) are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. See the University of Waterloo's Academic Integrity site for more information (<https://uwaterloo.ca/academic-integrity/>).

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of their university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Petitions and Grievances, www.sju.ca/sites/default/files/upload_file/PLCY_AOM_Student-Petitions-and-Grievances_20151211-SJUSCapproved.pdf.

When in doubt, please be certain to contact the St. Jerome's Advising Specialist, Student Affairs Office, who will provide further assistance.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing an academic offence, and to take responsibility for their actions. [Check www.uwaterloo.ca/academicintegrity/ for more information.] A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about "rules" for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course instructor, academic advisor, or the Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Discipline, www.sju.ca/sites/default/files/PLCY_AOM_Student-Discipline_20131122-SJUSCapproved.pdf.

For information on categories of offences and types of penalties, students should refer to University of Waterloo Policy 71, Student Discipline, <http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy71.htm>. For typical penalties, check the Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties, www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/guidelines/penaltyguidelines.htm.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is a serious academic offence. Policy 71 defines plagiarism as follows: "presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas, or work of others (whether attributed or anonymous) as one's own in any work. Plagiarism includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own ideas without proper citation or reference to the original source."

Students seeking guidance on plagiarism should consult the academic integrity tutorial at <https://uwaterloo.ca/library/get-assignment-and-research-help/academic-integrity/academic-integrity-tutorial>—especially the following modules: Submit assignments that are your own work, Credit your source, Use quotation marks, Credit others' ideas, and Taking notes and citing sources.

Note for students with disabilities: The AccessAbility Services office, located in Needles Hall Room 1401, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AccessAbility Office at the beginning of each academic term. See <https://uwaterloo.ca/accessability-services/current-students/how-apply> for details.

ASSIGNMENT DETAILS

1. Statute Drafting and Peer Evaluation

Drafting: Write a statute based on anything that you think should be enacted into law (prohibiting spitting in public, prohibiting the sale of unhealthy food in school cafeterias, regulating the flow of pedestrian traffic at St. Jerome's, regulating the behaviour of roommates, etc.). The intention of the statute can be playful or serious, but you must draft your law according to the conventions covered in the course. Make sure you clearly indicate the main intention of the statute, provide definitions if they are required, and consider exceptions that might arise. Limit your statute to 3 pages (double-spaced, 12 pt. font).

Evaluation: Bring two copies of your statute to class on October 8 for peer interpretation and evaluation: one with your name and ID, and one anonymous copy to be randomly circulated for the evaluation assignment. Questions to guide evaluation will be provided, and students are permitted to use laptops, notes, course material, etc. (i.e., the evaluation is open-book).

2. Analysis of Judicial Opinion OR Factum

Using tools of argument evaluation introduced in class, analyze a factum or judicial opinion of a recent Supreme Court of Canada case. The case for analysis will be discussed in-class prior to the assignment. Your analysis should be 6 pages minimum (double-spaced, 12 pt. font, full paragraphs) including diagrams. Due November 5.

3. Opening Statements OR Closing Arguments

Write either a set of opening statements for prosecution and defense or a set of closing arguments for prosecution and defense. Both types of document require advocacy for one case outcome over another. The openings or closings will be evaluated according to their persuasive aspects and the conventions of the chosen genre. The case for the openings / closings assignment will be based on the CLAUSE Undergraduate Mock Trials criminal case for fall 2018. For more information on CLAUSE UGMT, see <https://www.ugmt.co/>.

Opening statements or closing arguments should be 6–8 pages (double-spaced, 12 pt. font), including a 2–page rationale for your rhetorical strategies. Due December 3.

4. Final Exam

The exam will test your knowledge of core concepts covered in the course and will be divided into two parts: Part One (20 questions, 40%) will consist of multiple choice questions covering the nature of language, language and the law, and conventions of specific legal writing genres. Part Two (2 questions, 30% each) will require interpretation of legal texts using the tools of rhetoric and Toulmin's model of argumentation. Scheduled by Registrar.
