Assignments:

Survey of Literature

This will be a group assignment. Students will work together to compose a survey of literature around an assigned topic that is unique to their group, based upon the principals that are outlined in our lectures.

Proposal

Students will submit an individual proposal for their Final Report based upon the survey of literature that was previously submitted.

15%

Smaller Assignments

Students will have 9 small written assignments available weekly. Students will complete a minimum of 6 of these assignments, with the option of skipping 1 or 2 or 3 of them. Please note that you cannot skip the survey of literature, proposal, or final report.

45%

Final Report:

Building on the survey of literature and proposal, students will submit a final 2000-3000 word research report.

Note: All written work submitted late will be subject to a penalty of 10 marks (out of 100) per day, including weekends. Lecture viewing is mandatory for all submitted assignments. Unexcused absences will result in a 0 on the corresponding assignment (not counting the 3 assignments that students are allowed to skip)

Academic Integrity: To maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo and its Affiliated and Federated Institutions of Waterloo (AFIW) are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. See the UWaterloo Academic Integrity webpage for more information.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for their actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about "rules" for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to University of Waterloo Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of their university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Petitions and Grievances.

Appeals: A decision made or penalty imposed under the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes they have a ground for an appeal should refer to the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Appeals.

Note for Students with Disabilities: The AccessAbility Services office, located on the first floor of the Needles Hall extension (1401), collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.
