POLICY ON LATE WORK, MISSED ASSIGNMENTS, AND MAKE-UP TESTS

If you require accommodation for this course, please let me know as soon as possible and we will work together to ensure that you are properly accommodated. There will be make-up examinations only if exams are missed for valid and documented reasons. Unless arrangements are made with the professor beforehand or an official doctor's note is provided, late essays will be deducted a 5% penalty per day.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Regular attendance and participation are expected and will be evaluated at 10% of your final grade. If you cannot attend a class due to self-isolation, please let me know ahead of time and I will be sure to excuse your absence. I will not provide a recording of the class you miss, but I will be happy to meet to review the material once you have recovered.

ELECTRONIC DEVICE POLICY

Students are not permitted to use cellphones during class, but may use laptop computers for the purpose of notetaking.

CORRESPONDENCE

Please contact me by email. Be sure to include your name and the course code. I will try to respond within 24 hours.

COVID CONTINGENCY PLAN

In the case of short-term or long-term cancellation of in-person classes, we will switch to synchronous online meetings using MS Teams. Course requirements and assessment will remain unaffected. In the case of cancellation of in-person (midterm or final) examinations, I will provide alternative take-home examinations to be written within a designated period of time.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo community are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Check www.uwaterloo.ca/academicintegrity/ for more information.

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of their university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Petitions and Grievances. When in doubt, please be certain to contact the St. Jerome's Advising Specialist, Student Affairs Office, who will provide further assistance.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing an academic offence, and to take responsibility for their actions. Check www.uwaterloo.ca/academicintegrity/ for more information. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about "rules" for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course instructor, academic advisor, or the Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Discipline. For information on categories of offences and types of penalties, students should refer to University of Waterloo Policy 71, Student Discipline. For typical penalties, check the Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Appeals: A decision made or penalty imposed under the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes they have a ground for an appeal should refer to the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Appeals.

Note for students with disabilities: AccessAbility Services, located in Needles Hall (Room 1401) at the University of Waterloo, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with AccessAbility Services at the beginning of each academic term.

MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

TERRITORIAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We acknowledge that we are living and working on the traditional territory of the Attawandaron (also known as Neutral), Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee peoples. St. Jerome's University is situated on the Haldimand Tract, the land promised to the Six Nations that includes ten kilometres on each side of the Grand River.

CHOSEN/PREFERRED NAME

Do you want professors and interviewers to call you by a different first name? Take a minute now to verify or tell us your chosen/preferred first name by logging into WatIAM.

Why? Starting in Winter 2020, your chosen/preferred first name listed in WatIAM will be used broadly across campus (e.g., LEARN, Quest, WaterlooWorks, WatCard, etc). Note: Your legal first name will always be used on certain official documents. For more details, visit Updating Personal Information.

Important notes:

- If you included a preferred name on your OUAC application, it will be used as your chosen/preferred name unless you make a change now.
- If you don't provide a chosen/preferred name, your legal first name will continue to be used.
