Love and Friendship

➤ Course Description and Learning Outcomes

Description

This course is a study of the significance of love and friendship in classical and contemporary religious writing. We will consider questions such as, "Why are friendship and love important for human living?" and "Is friendship with God a possibility?"

Learning Outcomes

The readings will introduce love and friendship from a variety of angles, interpretive frameworks, genres, and writers. We will look at family love, friendship, community, love of the earth, love of others through social justice, love of the Divine, romantic and erotic love, as well as loss and grieving. Course requirements include active participation in discussions, and quizzes.

This online course was developed by Professor Carolyn Whitney-Brown, with instructional design and multimedia development support provided by the Centre for Extended Learning. Further media production was provided by Instructional Technologies and Multimedia Services.

➤ About the Course Author/Instructor

Dr. Carolyn Whitney-Brown, Ph.D.

Dr. Carolyn Whitney-Brown completed her B.A. at Victoria College (University of Toronto), and her M.A. and Ph.D. at Brown University (Rhode Island). Her doctoral thesis explored social and political meanings of childbirth stories in sixteenth and seventeenth-century England, using a wide variety of texts including drama, poetry, legal cases, midwifery manuals, diaries, theological discussions, homilies and popular news. Her research interests continue to investigate how stories are told, and which stories remain important in diverse historical and cultural contexts.

© Carolyn Whitney-Brown, Ph.D.

Her next book, Flying, Falling, Catching: An Unlikely Story of Finding Freedom, will be published by HarperOne in March 2022. Co-authored with the late Henri J. M. Nouwen, it tells the story of Nouwen's friendship with the Flying Rodleights trapeze troupe, and why his last manuscript was left unfinished at his death in 1996.

➤ Course Policies

Late Penalty Policy: Quizzes

Quizzes are due on the dates and times specified in the Course Schedule. The quiz clock or timer might still show time remaining after 11:55 PM on the due date, but answers submitted after 11:55 PM will be scored as 0.

Late Penalty Policy: Discussions

Discussions are due on the dates and times specified in the Course Schedule. Late submissions will lose 30% per day to a maximum of 2 days. No assignments will be accepted later than this and a grade of zero will be awarded.

You Are Responsible

- You are responsible for confirming that your discussion posts and quizzes have been submitted successfully and on time.
- Make sure at the beginning of the term that your computer meets all System Requirements. It is a good idea to complete the Introduce Yourself discussion to become familiar with the LEARN discussion environment and become acquainted with your classmates.
- Don't write to your professor in the last week of class explaining that you think you had difficulty submitting your quiz several weeks earlier, or that you forgot an assignment, or thought your discussions were posted days ago.
- Schedule your time well. If you need an extension for a discussion post, contact the instructor in advance. Remember that you can post your initial post at any time, even Weeks ahead.

- Quizzes are open for a full week: plan to take each quiz before the last day. If you have submission problems, contact Technical Support immediately.

➤ University Policies

Submission Times

Please be aware that the University of Waterloo is located in the Eastern Time Zone (GMT or UTC-5 during standard time and UTC-4 during daylight saving time) and, as such, the time that your activities and/or assignments are due is based on this zone. If you are outside the Eastern Time Zone and require assistance with converting your time, please try the Ontario, Canada Time Converter.

Accommodation Due to Illness

If your instructor has provided specific procedures for you to follow if you miss assignment due dates, term tests, or a final examination, adhere to those instructions.

Otherwise:

Missed Assignments/Tests/Quizzes

Contact the instructor as soon as you realize there will be a problem, and preferably within 48 hours, but no more than 72 hours, have a medical practitioner complete a Verification of Illness Form.

Email a scanned copy of the Verification of Illness Form to your instructor. In your email to the instructor, provide your name, student ID number, and exactly what course activity you missed.

Further information regarding Management of Requests for Accommodation Due to Illness can be found on the Accommodation due to illness page.

Academic Integrity

In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo community are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. If you have not already completed the online tutorial regarding academic integrity you should do so as soon as possible. Undergraduate students should see the Academic Integrity Tutorial and graduate students should see the Graduate Students and Academic Integrity website.

Proper citations are part of academic integrity. Citations in CEL course materials usually follow CEL style, which is based on APA style. Your course may follow a different style. If you are uncertain which style to use for an assignment, please confirm with your instructor or TA.

For further information on academic integrity, please visit the Office of Academic Integrity.

Turnitin

Turnitin.com: Text matching software (Turnitin®) may be used to screen assignments in this course. Turnitin® is used to verify that all materials and sources in assignments are documented. Students' submissions are stored on a U.S. server, therefore students must be given an alternative (e.g., scaffolded assignment or annotated bibliography), if they are concerned about their privacy and/or security. Students will be given due notice, in the first week of the term and/or at the time assignment details are provided, about arrangements and alternatives for the use of Turnitin® in this course.

It is the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor if they, in the first week of term or at the time assignment details are provided, wish to submit the alternate assignment.

Turnitin® at Waterloo

Discipline

A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity to avoid committing an academic offence, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration, should seek guidance from the course instructor, academic advisor, or the undergraduate Associate Dean. For information on categories of offences and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties, check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Appeals

A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, (other than a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline, may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes he/she has a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Grievance

A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. When in doubt please be certain to contact the department’s administrative assistant who will provide further assistance.

Final Grades

In accordance with Policy 46 - Information Management, Appendix A - Access to and Release of Student Information, the Centre for Extended Learning does not release final examination grades or final course grades to students. Students must go to Quest to see all final grades. Any grades posted in Waterloo LEARN are unofficial.

AccessAbility Services

AccessAbility Services, located in Needles Hall, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodation to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with AccessAbility Services at the beginning of each academic term and for each course.

Accessibility Statement

The Centre for Extended Learning strives to meet the needs of all our online learners. Our ongoing efforts to become aligned with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act \(AODA\) are guided by University of Waterloo accessibility Legislation and policy and the World Wide Web Consortium's \(W3C\) Web Content Accessibility Guidelines \(WCAG\) 2.0.
